

PROMOTED . . . William L. Latimer of Palos Verdes Estates has been named assistant manager of sales for Bethlehem Steel's Los Angeles office, it was announced Friday. Latimer has been employed by Bethlehem since 1950 and worked in the treasury and credit departments before being assigned to the sales department.

UCLA Opens New Offices At North High

Mrs. Toni Allredge will be in charge of the new University of California Extension offices located at North High School. She will be working with Dr. Richard Guengerich, principal of North High School and Southwest extension representative.

Office hours will be from 12 to 5 p.m. and 6 to 9 p.m. Mondays through Thursdays. The office will be closed Friday evening.

Free bulletins listing all courses offered in the Southwest region, as well as general extension schedules are available upon request at the office, DA 3-4773.

Round Table For Writers On HC Slate

Harbor College will offer a creative writing course in the evening division during the spring semester.

Writers' round table, English 27, will meet Wednesday evenings from 6:30 to 9:30 beginning the week of Feb. 3 and carries three units of college credit transferable to Long Beach State College.

Writing ideas will be examined as to publication possibilities and students will read work for informal discussion or criticism by the class. Samuel Bluefarb will instruct.

Applications for admission to the evening division are being accepted now at the Admission Office of the college. Application filing deadline is tomorrow.

Residents of Carson, Hahn Slate Meeting

The Carson Homeowners Assn. and Supervisor Kenneth Hahn will co-sponsor a Carson community meeting tonight to assist residents in obtaining street, sewer and lighting improvements for the neighborhood.

Representatives of the county engineer's office will explain the procedure of forming assessment district at the meeting which will be held at Carson High School, 22328 S. Main St., at 7:30 p.m.

Present will be sponsors of several petitions being circulated in the Carson area to form improvement assessment districts.

Neighborhood Asks Street Improvements

Residents of 218th Place between Figueroa and Caroldale Avenue are circulating a petition calling for improvements to 218th Street this week.

The petition calls for the installation of curbs, gutters, sidewalks, and sanitary sewers. If 60 per cent of the property owners in the area sign the petition, the Board of Supervisors will authorize the improvements.

Cost of the improvements will be shared by the county and residents in the area who will benefit from the work.
